If you're looking for an authentic South Asian dining experience in Pickering, Food Time at 1660 Kingston Rd, Pickering, ON L1V 5R2 is a spot that truly delivers. Their Food Time Menu is a flavorful journey through Pakistani and North Indian cuisine, filled with rich spices, aromatic herbs, and comforting classics that make you want to come back again and again. Each day offers something unique, giving diners a chance to explore a variety of traditional dishes while keeping the excitement alive with new flavors throughout the week.

On Tuesdays, Food Time serves a plate that's impossible to resist - the Chicken Biryani. It's fragrant, beautifully spiced, and every grain of basmati rice carries the deep aroma of saffron and marinated chicken. This dish alone captures the essence of home-style cooking done right. Alongside it, the Beef Qorma with Naan brings a tender, slow-cooked beef curry coated in a velvety gravy that pairs perfectly with their freshly baked naan. If you're craving something handheld and full of flavor, the Seekh Kabab Roll is a must-try - juicy, smoky kebabs wrapped in soft paratha, with mint chutney adding a fresh kick.

Wednesdays at Food Time are all about comfort food. Their Veal Palauo offers a subtle yet rich flavor profile, with fluffy rice and tender veal pieces seasoned just right. The Chicken Qorma with Naan returns midweek to remind you that creamy, spiced curries are always worth another round. It's a balanced dish, offering just enough spice to keep your palate entertained without being overwhelming - the kind of meal that feels both satisfying and soothing.

Come Friday, the Food Time Menu takes things up a notch with a trio that feels like a celebration. Their Butter Chicken is the star of the show - creamy, tangy, and bursting with that signature tandoori smokiness. Pair it with Mash or Shahi Daal, and you'll experience the heart of Pakistani comfort cuisine in one bite: lentils cooked to perfection, flavored with garlic, butter, and a hint of spice. And if you're in the mood for something quick and flavorful, the Chicken Tikka Roll is the way to go - tender pieces of marinated chicken wrapped in a soft flatbread, perfect for lunch or a light dinner.

The Saturday lineup brings another layer of culinary delight. Nihari with Naan stands out as a weekend indulgence - slow-cooked beef shank in a silky, spicy gravy that melts in your mouth. The texture, aroma, and warmth of this dish are unmatched, especially when paired with fresh naan straight from the tandoor. Alongside, the Channa Masala adds a vegetarian highlight that doesn't compromise on taste - chickpeas cooked in a robust tomato-based sauce that balances tangy and savory notes effortlessly.

Beyond the daily specials, Food Time knows how to bring people together with their Family Combos. The BBQ Platter for 2 and BBQ Platter for 4 are packed with an assortment of grilled meats - from juicy seekh kababs to smoky chicken tikka - making them ideal for sharing. If you're dining with meat lovers, the Meat Combo for 2 is a feast in itself, featuring a mix of their most popular meat dishes in generous portions. These combos perfectly capture the restaurant's mission: good food, good portions, and great company.
