Nestled in the cozy heart of Coker, Alabama, The Coker Market is more than just a local eatery—it's a place where southern comfort meets smoky barbecue charm. The Coker Market Menu is a true celebration of classic Southern flavors, served up with a generous dose of hospitality that makes every meal feel like home. Located at 14614 Co Rd 140, this neighborhood favorite brings together hearty plates, perfectly smoked meats, and indulgent desserts that keep guests coming back for more.

The first thing you notice when you open The Coker Market Menu is the irresistible lineup of sandwiches. Each one tells a flavorful story, starting with the Pulled Pork Reuben, a creative twist on the classic, loaded with tender pulled pork, melted cheese, and tangy dressing that blends beautifully with the smoky meat. The Pulled Pork Sandwich keeps it traditional—juicy, slow-cooked pork piled high on a soft bun, dripping with barbecue sauce that's equal parts sweet and savory. For seafood lovers, the Fried Catfish Sandwich is a must-try. The crispy, golden-brown fillet paired with fresh toppings gives you that Southern fish fry nostalgia in every bite. And if you're feeling adventurous, The Midnight and The Jose offer modern flair with bold seasoning and satisfying textures, showing just how versatile the kitchen's creativity can be.

Moving down the menu, the Plates section at The Coker Market is where true Southern comfort takes center stage. The Pulled Pork Plate showcases that same tender meat, this time served generously with traditional sides that make you feel like you're at a family cookout. The Smoked Chicken Wings stand out as one of the most flavorful items—smoky, juicy, and seasoned to perfection. You can taste the care and patience in every bite, a testament to slow smoking done right. The Fried Catfish Plate offers the same crispy magic as the sandwich but in a heartier portion, while the Smoked Chicken Breast delivers a lighter yet equally satisfying option. And for those craving a familiar favorite, the Chicken Tenders Plate brings golden, crunchy perfection that appeals to kids and adults alike.

One of the best things about The Coker Market Menu is its Shareables section—perfect for family gatherings or game day spreads. The Pulled Pork Family Dinner and Chicken Tender Family Dinner both serve up generous portions of the restaurant's best dishes, ideal for sharing around the table. If you're feeding a crowd, the Pulled Pork by the Pound or Tenders by the Dozen options let you bring that same home-cooked goodness wherever you go. It's a great way to take The Coker Market experience beyond the restaurant, whether it's for a backyard barbecue or a casual office lunch.

And of course, no Southern meal is complete without something sweet. The dessert lineup at The Coker Market adds the perfect finishing touch. The Banana Pudding is as comforting as it gets—rich, creamy, and layered with nostalgia. The Brownie is dense and fudgy, perfect for chocolate lovers, while Vera's Homemade Fried Pie steals the show with its flaky crust and warm, fruit-filled center. Pair any of these with a refreshing Iced Tea or Iced Water, and you've got the perfect ending to a hearty Southern meal.

The Coker Market Menu is a love letter to classic American comfort food, balancing homestyle recipes with just enough creativity to keep things exciting. Every dish feels carefully crafted, from the smoke-kissed meats to the golden-fried favorites. Whether you're stopping in for a quick lunch, ordering takeout for the family, or sitting down for a weekend meal, The Coker Market delivers quality and warmth in every bite. It's the kind of place where locals gather, flavors linger, and every visit feels like coming home.
